Capital Area Special Olympics to host annual Track and Field Competition

Baton Rouge, La. – Local Special Olympics Louisiana athletes will be competing in the Capital Area Special Olympics Track and Field Competition at Woodlawn High School on March 4th-5th.

Middle school and high school athletes will compete from 10 a.m.-1 p.m. March 4. Elementary school athletes will compete from 10 a.m.-1p.m. March 5.

The event is free and the community is welcome to cheer on its local athletes. Over 500 independent athletes and athletes from the East Baton Rouge Parish, Zachary, Ascension and Central school systems will be competing.

This is the qualifying event for the Capital Area Special Olympics athletes who wish to advance to the state competition held in May. Capital Area Special Olympics is a non-profit organization that provides the Baton Rouge area with year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities.
